DYNNARGH DHIS!

WELCOME!

Hello and welcome to the Christmas edition of the Redruth Record.

As another busy year draws to a close, there is plenty happening across Redruth over the festive season. From Redruth in Lights and Christmas markets to live music, workshops, family activities and community events, I hope this edition helps you make the most of everything taking place in and around the town.

Christmas is also an important time to support our independent businesses, community organisations and the many volunteers who contribute so much throughout the year.

i am delighted to let you know that our annual Christmas grotto will once again be raising funds for the charity Penhaligon's Friends

On behalf of Redruth Town Council, I would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a happy and peaceful New Year.

Best wishes,

Cllr Alison Biscoe
Redruth Town Mayor

YOUR GUIDE TO CHRISTMAS IN REDRUTH

REDRUTH WASSAIL

WHAT IS THE REDRUTH WASSAIL

The Redruth Visit Wassail is a traditional event that took place in Victorian times, it raised money for the sick and needy by singing and playing local Cornish carols, and the traditional Redruth Wassail song and tune in and around the town in people's houses and pubs.

It's believed the Visit Wassail died out around the end of the Victorian period.

It was revived in 2015 with the bowl donated to the people of Redruth.
The Wassail Bowl is on public display at the Redruth library.

Traditionally, each year, the bowl is presented on the evening to the selected Holly King or Queen, where a silver coin or money is placed in the bowl; all public collections are donated to local Redruth charities or community activities.

Join the Wassail in the Buttermarket from 3pm to learn the tune.

REDRUTH WASSAIL

1. Good Mistress and Master our Wassail begin, Pray open your door and let us come in.

Chorus: With our wassail, wassail, wassail;
And joy come to our jolly wassail.

2. The Mistress and Master sitting down by the fire, While we poor wassailers are travelling through mire.

3. The Mistress and Master sitting down at their ease, Put their hands in their pockets and give what they please.

4. We hope that your apple trees will prosper and bear, That we may have cyder awhen we call next year.

5. And where you've one hogshead I hope you'll have ten, So we may have cyder when we call again.

6. We hope that your barley will prosper and grow, So that you may have beer and enough to bestow.

7. Now we poor wassail boys growing weary and cold, Drop a small bit of silver into our bowl.

8. We wish you a blessing and a long time to live, Since you've been so free and so willing to give!

ACCESSIBILITY

Redruth Library
Step-free access via a short ramp and power-assisted doors. An accessible toilet is available, and the Langman Room is step-free with a hearing loop.

Market
Market Hall and Market Way have step-free access from the Buttermarket and Fore Street. Market Hall has an accessible toilet.

Buttermarket
Step-free access via the Market Way entrance, with accessible toilets.

Travel
Redruth train station is a short distance away from Redruth Town Centre, and it has some step-free access to the platforms. For full details, visit nationalrail.co.uk
The bus stops are located on Station Hill, a short distance from the Town Centre.

FIRST AID

First Aid will be available from 3pm–8pm on Saturday 5 December at Alma Place, outside Redruth Library.

SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL

We encourage everyone attending this year's Redruth in Lights to help us make the event as sustainable as possible. Please help reduce single-use plastic by bringing your own reusable water bottles, cups, and tote bags when exploring the market or enjoying refreshments around town.

Redruth's mainline train station has regular services between Penzance and London Paddington.

Bus services stopping on Station Road connect Redruth with Truro, Penzance, Helston, Newquay, St Ives and St Agnes.
For more information, visit transportforcornwall.co.uk or download the Transport for Cornwall app.

REDRUTH LIBRARY

We're always happy to welcome our community to the Library in the Civic Centre. We offer full access to many services, including public access computers and free Wi-Fi, as well as scanning, printing, and photocopying. We can help with completing online tasks and offer free tuition to develop digital skills for the future, as well as a Home Library Service that delivers books to those who can't reach the library themselves; we even sell stamps. Why not pop into our revamped foyer with its comfy chairs, working space and heating for those colder days. Please ask in the library for more information.
